Mr. William O. Dresbach,

Sir:

In response to your letter you are advised that your above cited claim for pension under the Act of June 27, 1890 stands rejected on the ground that you did not serve ninety days in the late Civil War. It appears that you were in the service only from June 27th to August 13, 1863. Pensions are allowed only as authorized by law, and there is apparently no law under which you can be pensioned.

Very respectfully,

W. M. HARRINGTON

Commissioner.
